

THURSDAY
APRIL 17

3:00 pm - 4:30 pm

FULL CIRCLE MOMENT: EXPLORING LEGACIES OF SLAVERY, FREEDOM, AND FAMILY IN USC'S HISTORY

Lumpkin Auditorium,
Close-Hipp Building, 8th floor
1705 College Street

Join us for a fireside chat with renowned chemist
Dr. Albert Thompson, a descendant of Titus and Lucretia Pinckney, who were enslaved on USC's campus.

Co-Sponsors

Center for Civil Rights History and Research
Department of Anthropology
Public History Program
Public Heritage Lab
USC Libraries

Please click here or scan the QR code to RSVP.

