

Walker Institute of International and Area Studies presents

PALMETTO FORUM

Consul General Rachel Galloway presents:

Bridging the Atlantic from the United Kingdom to South Carolina

Join us for a presentation by Rachel Galloway, His Majesty's Consul General at the British Consulate-General in Atlanta. Consul General Galloway will discuss her career in diplomacy as it parallels geopolitical trends. With a new Memorandum of Understanding between the UK and SC signed last year to strengthen trade relations, and the opening of a new SC Dept. of Commerce desk serving the UK & Ireland, Consul General Galloway will also address the future relations between our state and the United Kingdom.

THURSDAY

March 6

12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

The Palmetto Club

1231 Sumter St. Columbia, SC 29201

SCAN TO SIGN UP

OR CLICK HERE

As Consul General, Rachel Galloway is the senior UK official in the Atlanta Consulate General. Galloway came to Atlanta following a three-year tour as Her Majesty's Ambassador to the Republic of North Macedonia. In the 2000s, Galloway served in the Washington DC Embassy; followed by development and reconstruction posts in Darfur, Sudan and Helmand, Afghanistan. She also served in HM Treasury's Counter Terrorism review team.