

Tackling Drug-Resistant Breast Cancers 📄 A new study led by Eugenia Broude in the department of Drug Discovery and Biomedical Sciences suggests a novel approach to bypassing tumor resistance to HER2-targeting drugs. Read more...

FROM THE DEAN'S DESK

What an exciting time it is to be a Gamecock Pharmacist – we have so much good news to share with you! This month's e-newsletter highlights the great achievements of one of our researchers, Dr. Eugenia Broude, and her efforts to combat breast cancer. Our college is seeing tremendous strides in the research funding that we are receiving, as evidenced by our gains in the Funded Research Rankings report from the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy. There are many exciting things ahead, and we are grateful for your continued support.
